

Tobin Grove

President
KDC

"We have an excellent relationship with the city built over many years of developing projects there. Our interface with the city during the Encana project served only to enhance the relationship. From the very first meetings, where we introduced the project, it was a total team effort. The project goals were to deliver a Class-A building meeting all of Encana's needs on schedule and within budget, and those goals were accomplished."